Women remain seen as a minority to men, and the societal roles placed for each has created a significant issue, which is the gender pay gap. According to The Guardian article, "Economic inequality for Women Costs", gender inequality in the workplace, especially having a gender pay gap has influenced poverty. The article through UN reports and studies, stated that "women comprise 60% of the world's working poor, and that only about half of them participate in the labor force.

Leaders and line managers play a pivotal role in stamping out gender inequalities at work. However, they need to receive the appropriate guidance and training, lead by example, treat people fairly (regardless of their sex), and not tolerate inappropriate behaviour. We fully support the introduction of gender pay gap reporting.
